The Morning Stars (or "Sons of God")

The Morning Stars Series is complete! This eight-part study into the reality of angels began on April 29th, 2007 and completed on January 16th, 2008. The MP3s for this series have been uploaded to the internet and can be ordered on compact disc (order form in this newsletter). Stay up to date @ covenantpeoplesministry.com!

Who is Michael?

(From The Morning Stars #1)

The archangel Michael has the distinction of shattering man's bogus "no-angel" doctrines because his name graces the pages of both Old and New Testaments proving his longevity. His name is actually a question asking "Who is like God?" (Strong's #H4317) meaning that his personal appearance is likened to that of Yahweh yet he's certainly not Jesus Christ as some teach. He once appeared to Daniel to help him overcome his own spiritual battles (Daniel 10:13 & 21) thus he's mentioned in this latter-day prophecy about Yahweh's Judgment:

"At that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt" (Daniel 12:1 Webster).

In canonized scripture, Michael is regularly portrayed as warring against Satan (the rebel angel) and as such these passages are referencing the future "great and terrible day of the Lord" or the coming Judgment upon mankind. Those who awake to "shame and everlasting contempt" obviously take part in the second death or the obliteration of unrighteous souls (Revelation 20:6). The prophet Enoch further states that Michael is; "one of the holy angels, to wit, he that is set over the best part of mankind and over chaos" (Enoch 20:5-6).

"There was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out upon the earth, and his angels were cast out with him" (Revelation 12:7-9 Webster).

Either God's Word is perfect or we must rely on man's faulty interpretations. Here (and in the King James Version), both the Devil and Satan are capitalized meaning they're referring to a personified deity. Of course confused men will spend countless hours trying to explain away the reality of angels or fallen demons but for Christians it's best to trust the Word of God in such matters. Michael is considered among the "chief princes" of those angels that stood against Satan's rebellion and as such frequently stands opposite to wickedness.

"Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. Woe to them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and run greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core" (Jude 1:9 & 11 Webster).

Dealing almost exclusively with false prophets that have gone the way of Cain, Jude's statement gives proof that Moses' body was taken by Yahweh and how to deal with modern-day counterfeit preachers. Much like the second chapter of II Peter, these statements are nods to the writings of Enoch because his writings were mostly dedicated to naming the angels and the coming demise of the Nephilim (Grigori). Just like the temptation of Christ, a similar lesson can be learned here -- don't argue with Satanel nor anybody that belongs to him.

On a side note, we now live in an America where negro and women candidates are running for presidential office. Why does this matter? Because God's Law straightforwardly forbids both women and strangers from ruling over His Israelite children. The "abomination which makes desolate" takes away the daily sacrifice (Daniel 12:11). He will deny Jesus Christ and work toward obliterating all traces of Christianity. Obama will be no different if elected - Muslims deny our Messiah and merely consider Him a "prophet among many." Today's South Africa should forever serve as an example of "black rule" yet many white voters are hard-hearted and oftentimes relish in their own brainwashing and destruction. Try as the media often does, they fail to completely erase the grossly disproportionate black-on-white crimes statistics. Fortunately, man's government cannot completely outlaw the morality of Yahweh. Sure, they may pass their own substandard laws making "hate crimes" out of truthful thoughts but thankfully Biblical "knowledge is increasing" in these latter days. No man knows the hour nor moment of Christ's return but He's given numerous "signs" to look for towards the approaching of His reign (Mark 13:4-27). The enemy may claim that Satan is not real but the evidences of his misdeeds are apparent every day. There are too many modern atrocities to mention in this sermon but suffice to say that it's the unlearned man who denies what's plainly written in scripture. The "spirit of error" is alive and well (1 John 4:6) and most of humanity is ready to share a bed with The Son of Perdition.
