WICKED FOR THE DAY OF EVIL (#2)

by Pastor Jeremy John Visser

(Introduction:)

This evening's sermon will be the second part of Wicked For the Day of Evil that we began last week and in this lesson we will look at specific passages found in our Bibles that prove Yahweh Himself created wickedness. In the previous lesson, we mostly read the writings of Paul to the Romans and covered the individual aspects of a reprobate mind, a dishonorable vessel and a slumbered spirit. Like all things, even these three appalling characteristics are from our Creator Jesus.

Brothers and sisters, just this week the known rat and ZOG informant Joshua Caleb Sutter betrayed both Senior Pastor Morris L. Gulett and Deacon Charles Scott Thornton from Legion of Saints by conspiring with our enemy to bear false witness against them. Right on the heels of that atrocity, Pastor Martin Lindstedt -- who is also an active member of Church of the Sons of YHVH and Legion of Saints -- was picked up on fraudulent charges a mere day after posting support for Pastor Gulett in our forums. It should be apparent that those behind these disgusting betrayals would also be stricken with the reprobate mind, being a dishonorable vessel or by having a slumbered spirit (and any combination of those three) but did you ever stop to consider that these traitors to Yahweh's cause might have simply been created evil for the sole purpose of injecting their poison?

I'm of the conviction that an evil person can spend their entire life pretending to be Christian just to sow discord from within the ranks. This is why Jesus taught so adamantly against the hypocrites or 'stage players' and would also teach us; "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you" (Matthew 7:6)." Never before have so many 'tares' been apparent as they are in today's apostasy.

(Evil Spirit From God:)

A good place to begin studying about 'dogs and pigs' would be in 1st Samuel 16:11-15; "Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come hither. And he sent, and brought him [David] in. Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And Yahweh said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he. Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit of Yahweh came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah. But the Spirit of Yahweh departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from Yahweh troubled him. And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee."

This is the choosing of David for Yahweh done through the prophet Samuel and we should all notice that even as a youth David was 'ruddy' possessing "the ability to blush" as we can also read during the account of David and Goliath; "When the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance (1 Samuel 17:42)." However, what I'd like to focus on is the fact that as soon as the mighty David was chosen to receive the Holy Spirit, that same Spirit completely left king Saul and an evil one entered into him to replace it.

There's another account of a certain 'evil spirit' found in Acts 19:11-16; "God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them. Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there were seven sons of Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so. And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded." Notice that these uncalled jews attempt to exorcize evil spirits "by Jesus whom Paul preacheth" and they were practically beaten down for their attempt and instead fled from the house "naked and wounded?" We should pay close attention to these passages to see why this happened -- this evil spirit asks the false exorcists "Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?" before unleashing his fury? In light of this story remember the words of James; "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble (James 2:19)."

For a moment, let's think about the 'legion' of demons that Jesus Christ cast into the filthy swine as we'll read from Luke 8:26-33; "They [Jesus and His disciples] arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not. (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.) And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him. And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep [nothingness]. And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them. Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked."

From this account as well we can see that evil-spirited demons know who are the sons of Yahweh in contrast to their own -- the unfortunate 'certain' man, or "host" for the evil spirits. Friends, we can choose either the Holy Spirit or an evil spirit, it's one or the other so let's keep our 'vessels' as clean as possible so the proper Spirit can abide within us always. Jesus cast the demons into the pigs because they are Biblically considered unclean and this is yet another proof-text that swine are an abomination just like we covered in Yahweh's Food Laws - Why Listen? Before moving on to "lying spirits" we should quickly look at two more accounts that further drive home the very point I'm trying to make.

In Luke 9:49-50 it reads; "John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbid him, because he followeth not with us. And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us." Now, contrast these unnamed 'followers' who used Jesus name to rebuke demons instead of "by Jesus whom Paul preacheth" as we just read a moment ago. Never could truer Words be spoken than "He that is not against us is for us" because in certain cases, like that of Joshua Caleb Sutter, certain false brethren can only be against us and will do all they can to destroy Biblical truth or sow discord.

Turn with me to the Gospel of Matthew 17:14-21: "When they [the disciples] were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he [singular] departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting."

From what we've just read we should be able to see that many of the disciples themselves held an 'unbelief' in demons or evil spirits just like we find many Christians today that refuse to acknowledge the existence of Satan or power of Jesus' name. Interesting also is the fact that a lunatic is considered 'demon possessed' agreeing with a majority of recorded history, that is -- until the pharmakeia gained major footing in the poisoning our people with unnecessary vaccines and developed so-called 'mental health' facilities during this last century. Evil spirits are real and they are sent by Yahweh.

(Lying Spirit From God:)

"The king of Israel [Ahab] said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he [Elijah] would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil? And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of Yahweh: I saw Yahweh sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. And Yahweh said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner. And there came forth a spirit, and stood before Yahweh, and said, I will persuade him. And Yahweh said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade and prevail also: go forth, and do so. Now therefore, behold, Yahweh hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and Yahweh hath spoken evil concerning thee (1 Kings 22:18-23)."

This is scriptural truth that the God of Israel can and does put a "lying spirit" in the mouth of certain 'prophets' irregardless of their heritage. Bearing false witness is not only a violation of numerous Mosaic Laws but a serious offense of the ninth commandment (Exodus 20:16) so those who choose to participate in such activities, especially amongst the chosen remnant of Yahweh's Holy people, should already be rebuked as a 'false prophet' that contains a lying spirit. In this particular account "there came forth a spirit, and stood before Yahweh and said I will persuade him." Compare this with the story of Job that reads; "There was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh, and Satan came also among them (Job 1:6)."

Many false prophets who deny the fact that Satan is a real deity like to point out that the word "tempter" means "put to the test or tempt" and "devil" means "false accuser or slanderer" as if this fact supports their claims. The way I look at names is like this -- every name in the Bible has a specific meaning. For example, Emmanuel means "God with us" but it was without a doubt still Jesus. Peter means "rock" but he wasn't stone. Andrew means "manly" but he was still ole' Andy. Phillip means "fond of horses" but did he own any? Beelzebub means "dung god" and he most likely was. Just because Lucifer (as a noun-masculine name) means "light-bringer" doesn't mean that he's not a fallen angel.

There's a second rendering of this account found in 2 Chronicles 18:17-21; "The king of Israel [Ahab] said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he [Elijah] would not prophesy good unto me, but evil? Again he said, Therefore hear the word of Yahweh; I saw Yahweh sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. And Yahweh said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramothgilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner. Then there came out a spirit, and stood before Yahweh, and said, I will entice him. And Yahweh said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And Yahweh said, Thou shalt entice and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do so. Now therefore, behold, Yahweh hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and Yahweh hath spoken evil against thee."

In comparing the two accounts we can notice the the only major difference is with the 'spirit that came forth' -- in Kings it says he would "persuade" the false prophets and in Chronicles it says he will "entice" them. Both words are taken from the verb pâthâh (pronounced paw-thaw') and it literally means "allure, deceive, enlarge, entice, flatter, persuade or make one silly (Strong's #H6601)." Both books of the Bible say that it was Yahweh Himself that put a 'lying spirit' in the mouth of the prophets and 'spoke evil' against them. Lying spirits are real and they are also sent by Yahweh.

In light of this evidence about lying spirits consider this awesome passage found in Isaiah 45:4-7; "For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me. I am Yahweh, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am Yahweh, and there is none else. I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I Yahweh do all these." An omnipotent God is just that -- all things.

At this stage in tonight's study someone might be asking "But why would a God of love do such things?" The fact of the matter is the Bible never once states that Yahweh is only love, rather He possesses the abilities of both hate and love like His children that are formed in His image. We can further verify this fact in Malachi 1:3 and Romans 9:13 where god himself says; "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." We briefly covered why Yahweh chooses some people over others in Thou Shalt Make Thee No Molten gods and it's to "multiply His signs and wonders" to the heathen and the world.

(Intention:)

My intention with tonight's study is to dedicate it to the Church of the Sons of YHVH who have suffered more than their fair share of hardships in the past week or so. It's my prayer that this sermon will touch the families of Morris L. Gulett, Deacon Charles Scott Thornton and Pastor Martin Lindstedt and aid them in this trying time, especially the mothers of these fine Christian patriots to the Israel cause. They are without a doubt feeling the loss of a son due to the actions of Joshua Caleb Sutter.

Like the thread I started at Stormfront Forums trying to bring more exposure to this obvious set-up that was promptly deleted, I hope that tonight's sermon will eventually be indexed by the numerous search engines around the internet to further warn Christians against not only Sutter but the various serpents that have infiltrated the movement and twisted the very vision of both Butler and Swift's Church of Jesus Christ Christian. War for Christ! Amen.
